That Roscommon County Council calls for the establishment of a Just Transition Community Advocacy Body, a direct Link between Communities and Key Stakeholders including BNM, Local Authorities etc. Communities such as Cloontuskert have expressed its significant concern that there is no central body to monitor progress towards a truly Just Transition, hear community concerns, challenges, opportunities or aspirations per its 'as lived' experience on the ground and get answers from relevant agencies. Cloontuskert is currently taking part in the Government's Creative Climate Action pilot known as 'Workers' Villages' and national placemaking programme 'Reimagine Cloontuskert' with the IAF, CI and GAP.
