9. Notices Of Motion

Notice of Motion – Cllr. John Cummins

That Roscommon Co Council will seek funding under the Low Cost Safety Improvements Scheme Fund for safety measures and safety works to be carried out at Grange N.S. in North Roscommon. This National School is situated at a busy roads junction and works need to be carried out to ensure the safety of pupils, teachers and parents who use this educational facility on a daily basis.

Notice Of Motion: Cllr. Valerie Byrne

That Roscommon County Council set up a meeting with the NTA so that we can get confirmation of funding that has been allocated to the Jamestown/ Dromsna project and the timeframe going forward for the project to be completed.

10. Questions

Question 1: Cllr. Valerie Byrne

How much money was allocated to Jamestown/Drumsna project, how much was spent, what works were carried out and can we see the drawings that were drawn up?

Question 2: Cllr. Valerie Byrne

Why was the €240,000 that was ring-fenced for the foot/cycle path project between Drumsna and Jamestown with great safety implications moved to an aesthetic project in Ballaghaderreen?

11. Votes of Congratulations/Sympathy
12. Civic Reception Nominations
