That Roscommon County Council review the graveyards policy regarding the allocation of grave spaces, as currently graves are only allocated when the applicant is deceased. This policy causes great distress to the families or deceased relative where there is a surviving relative. The current policy also puts the graveyard caretakers around the county in an extremely difficult position trying to defend such policy at a very delicate time to their neighbors and friends. The caretakers income is a miserable total of €6 per week with no travel expenses this should also be part of the review.
